American Treachery in the Attack on the USS Liberty Much Deeper Than Previously Assumed

2007 Mark Glenn

For those who follow the intrigues and explosive events surrounding the relationship between America and Israel over the last 4 decades it is easy to “get into a rut” so to speak and blame every single catastrophic event solely on the treachery of Israel. The tragedy though (and certainly the part hardest to swallow by patriotic Americans who would just as soon take their own lives as betray their fellow countrymen) is that there have been and are players on the American side of the equation whose hands are just as dirty as those of their Israeli counterparts. Whether it was the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, the assassination of JFK, the bombing of the Twin Towers in 1993, the bombing of the Murrah Federal Building in 1995 or the events taking place on 9/11, the fact is that the only way these could have taken place is if elements within the US government infrastructure cooperated with the planning, execution and subsequent dissemination of propaganda in the aftermath of these operations.

Now, a new and terrible tale has surfaced indicating yet again that elements of the US government were involved at the highest level in even more criminal acts against the very same American people whom she is charged with protecting. The case in question involves the June 6th, 1967 attack on the USS Liberty by the air and naval forces of the state of Israel during the height of the Arab-Israeli War that led to the deaths of 34 American servicemen. Long-believed that players within the Johnson administration simply assisted in the cover-up of the attack so as “not to embarrass” America’s greatest ally, Israel, it now appears that American political, intelligence and military persons played a key role in setting up the Liberty for the purpose of igniting WWII in what was code-named “Operation Cyanide”.

It was a heady time, to be sure. The US and the USSR were neck-deep in what was called the Cold War and by all appearances it seemed that a shooting match between the two superpowers was an inevitability. The reader should keep in mind that this was only a few short years after the Cuban Missile Crisis.
It has long been assumed that Israel's deliberate attack on the USS Liberty was just another of her made-to-order false flag operations done simply for the purpose of dragging an unwilling America into a Middle East war on the side of the Jewish state. However, new information uncovered by former BBC investigative journalist Peter Hounam reveals that America—and more specifically the administration of Lyndon Johnson—was not as much the unsuspecting victim in all of this that she has claimed these last 40 years. Based on relatively new evidence, the attack on the Liberty was actually part of a much larger plan and that the Liberty incident was just one domino in a series of them that had as the ultimate goal a real-life shooting war between the US and the USSR. Had the Liberty been sunk with no witnesses as planned, the world would be a much different place now as a result, and certainly not for the better.

In short, what was planned for that awful day in American history was that the defenseless, unarmed American ship sailing in international waters off the coast of Egypt be sunk to the bottom of the Mediterranean and that the Soviets and their Arab allies (in particular Egypt) would be blamed for the event. As with the sinking of the USS Maine nearly 70 years earlier, the cry would be “Remember the USS Liberty” and America’s “justifiable” response to such a horrendous act would be the launching of nuclear weapons against Egypt, the USSR’s ally. Working in tandem with the US would be allies such as Israel, Great Britain and, interestingly, Australia. The end result would be a Middle East free of any Soviet presence, leaving America and her ally Israel in possession of Arab oil for the foreseeable future and in a better position to dictate terms to the communists.

In the minds of powerful men such as these—men who sit in comfortable offices and expensive cars and who do not have to answer for anyone for their actions, the rationale for such an act is simple—better that 300 men die in the service of their country than the ‘free world’ fall into the clutches of Soviet communism. What prevented all of this from taking place was that—simply by the grace of God—the Liberty did not sink and the world was spared, at least temporarily.

Of course there is no official confirmation of Operation Cyanide. In fact there is no mention of it at all. In various interviews that have been conducted over the years, individuals from Secretary of Defense McNamara to Dean Rusk to Richard Helms to Mossad spy chief Rafael Eitan have demonstrated great intellectual and verbal energy for men their age when discussing various items but who then clam up instantaneously when Operation Cyanide is mentioned as if they were witnesses to a Mafia hit and feared for their lives.

Nevertheless the smaller players who were involved at that time have a different tale to tell, and piecing together all the small parts that they individually bring to the table fetches out a picture that, although not crystal clear, is clear enough to suggest that America was involved in the murder of 34 of her young men on June 8th, 1967 in a much deeper fashion than previously thought. For the sake of those men who died that day and for those who survived the attack physically but who have endured the assault of lies that has been waged against them these last 40 years, the truth concerning what took place that day must be told. In the opinion of many, the Liberty incident may very well hold the key to freeing America from the bondage she suffers under men such as those who have murdered—not only her people, but as well her political system.

Beginning in June, AFP will begin running a series of exclusive articles going into deeper detail the mechanics of “Operation Cyanide” with an individual who worked in US Intelligence circles and has first-hand knowledge of the events that took place before, during and after June 8th, 1967. What he has to say has never before been published.

Reminds one of the way Roosevelt set up the naval forces at Pearl Harbor to set off World War Two.

Justice delayed, is justice denied.
MAKE THE MOVIE.

Equalizer, that would be a brilliant thing to do. Just look at the amount of movies made about other wars/conflicts/attacks regarding the USA, but with Hollywood & the media controlled by Zionists (they even admit it) I can't see it happening any time soon. Maybe, if there was an independent film maker but then there would be problems with funding, therefore no publicity etc. Great idea tho' as there are far too many people who still don't know about this war crime.

Thanks for putting that video link up I haven't seen it before.

One would have to be smoking crystal-crack-heroin speedballs, to think that an Egyptian attack and subsequent sinking of an American ship (the Liberty), would justify the nuclear bombing of Cairo, killing millions of innocent Egyptian civilians.

So Odamn those templemonkey bastards back to hell!

"the planning, execution and subsequent dissemination of propaganda": plus, MG, the cover-up, and destruction of evidence.

Just watched an episode of news analysis on Press TV. One of the guests was J. Bruce Campbell from Idaho, of Veterans Today, who promoted this theory called "Operation Cyanide," much to the dismay of the other two guests. Campbell, himself, survived three MOSSAD attempts on his life, because of his plan to form a militia, which would "take out" the Jewish financial centre in NY. If you can get him to agree to an interview Mark, it would be interesting.

"the ultimate goal a real-live shooting war between the US and the USSR": seems this is still "the goal", the battlefield now being Syria.

"In the opinion of many, the Liberty incident may very well hold the key to freeing America from the bondage she suffers under men such as those who have murdered—not only her people, but as well her political system":

something has to "give": this "conspiracy of silence," surely can’t last forever.

Amazing that the Israelis couldn’t sink an unprotected ship.
This is so likely, because, all the "Operation Northwoods" crew was still on board the U.S. S. Capital, and having just recently murdered the Captain. (JFK)

Jews... Jews... They do all of this, and the stupid fall for them... Every Church goer, and flag waver I know backs them up... Face it, the worse enemies today of true freedom from them, are the CONSERVATIVE TYPES! Despite the efforts of fine people like Bishop Williamson, and the brilliant Brother Nathanial Kaptner, Christianity is so flawed in its make up, that it allows the JEWS protection to ENSLAVE US... Please take note, Jews are all system... Little imagination. Adolf Hitler said in January of 1940, when still hoping for PEACE, that they are the the stupidest people on earth". (SEE HITLER WARS US ABOUT MASONIS/JEWS YOU TUBE) and they begin these events, but often loose control of them... Operation Cyanide is such... It is typical... Lusitania, Pearl Harbor, rubbish that Hitler,Japan started the war, Gulf Of Tonkin, later 911, all fit... Even the Jews slander against enemies are the same... Evil, cruel, crazy, crooks, sex perverts, jealous. When one learns what Jews do, and how they react. It is easy to understand events...
Of the nearly 1,100 foreigners arrested after Sept. 11, 90 to 100 are Israeli citizens
